On a short-term basis, the market is oversold. A bounce should be expected. And then a retest would be normal.

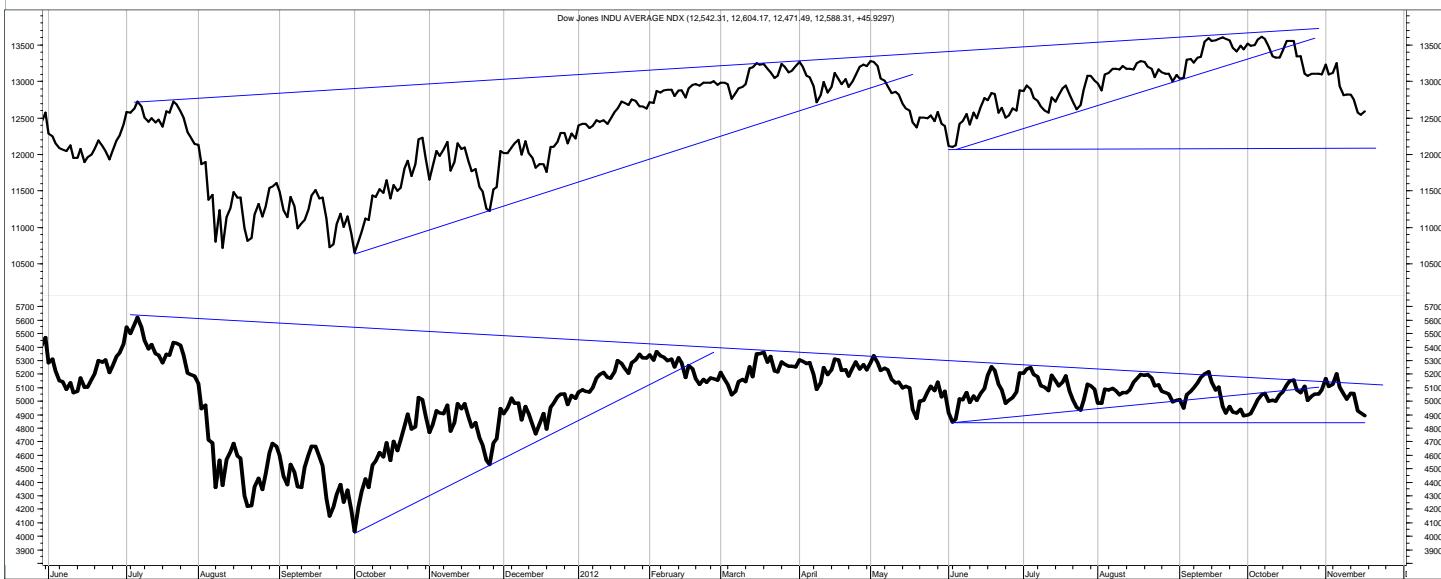

Investor sentiment has grown more bearish over the last few weeks, coinciding with the down market. From a contrary point of view, this will be bullish, if the pessimism continues to grow.

The obvious issue behind the sell off is the impasse in Washington, which would lead to the economy falling off the Fiscal Cliff.

The assumption is the auto-

WEEKLY REVIEW

11/19 Given the Fed will buy mortgage-backed securities, it's a wonder MBB hasn't moved up.

11/12 No changes.

11/5 No changes.

10/30 No changes. I still expect yields to remain stable to down in the months ahead.

10/22 I'll sell the short-dated corporate bond BSV and buy the 10-20 year Treasury TLH.

10/15 Treasuries appear to be bouncing. See charts on the next pages.

This is the ETF Income Database and Ranking. It shows performance over the last 12, 9, 6, 3, and 1 months through the previous month's end. V is Volatility. NAV is price. CS is Comet Strength (not shown). C is Comet (not shown), which is an ETF's risk-adjusted performance; the higher the better. V, CS, and C are proprietary tools. Rank column shows the number of comets.

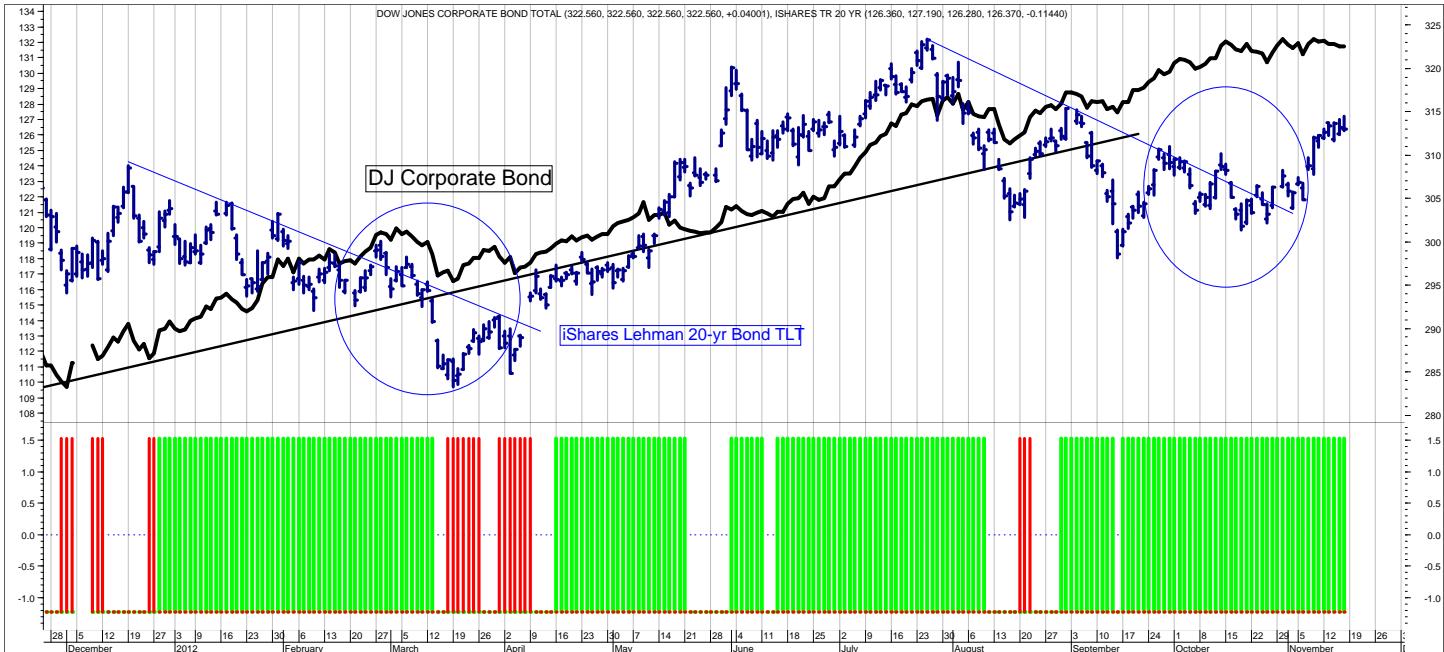

ETF LEGEND for pages 3 (Bond), and 7, 8, 9, and 10 (Equity):

Column headings: The first column shows the ETF name, the second column shows it symbol (due to our data provider, symbols may end in a "D"; it should be ignored). The third column shows the ETF Style. The first letter is always either B (Bond) or E (Equity) or H (Hybrid). The next letter(s) is the style. So, BS-bond short, BI-bond intermediate, BL-bond long, BF-flexible, BW-world, BH-high yield. And for Equity, EA-equity aggressive, EC-equity contrary, EG-equity gold (precious metals), ESC-small cap, EMC-mid cap, ELC-large cap, EW-world, EGI-growth/income, ERE-real estate, EV-value.

Columns 4-8 shows percentage returns for the periods shown (12 months, 9, 6, 3, and 1 month). Column 9 is V (volatility); a measure of risk; the lower the less risk. Column 10 is the NAV. Column 11 is the C (comet) ranking. C is the risk-adjusted (V) relative performance (CS-not shown). The higher the C indicates the most return for the amount of risk taken.

Generally, our ETF strategy is to own the top ranked ETFs (shown in green) and avoid or short the lower ranked ETFs (shown in red).

SLM Bond Timing Model

The SLM Bond Timing Model is based on the expected direction of the Corporate Bond market. The green bars are bullish (expect higher prices and lower yields) and the red bars are bearish (expect lower prices and higher yields). White spaces indicate that the previous signal is still in effect.

WEEKLY REVIEW

11/19 Trend up continues.

11/12 Catch up apparent.

11/5 No changes.

10/30 If the previous analysis is correct (weak Treasuries will play catch-up to stronger corporates), then it's only a matter of time before the down trend line drawn on the chart is broken to the upside.

10/22 I'll buy the Treasuries on their relative weakness to corporates; this is shown on page 2.

10/15 Treasuries bounced back through their downtrend line.

10/8 Treasuries are "cheap" relative to corporates, as seen on the chart above. The last time this happened Treasuries came roaring back (down trending blue line that was broken to the upside).

Each chart shows daily prices, a moving average (smoothed red line on price portion), and spikes. The spikes show potential buy and sell short signals. Generally speaking, if the moving average is trending down, the spike shows a potential sell short. If the moving average is trending up, the spike shows a potential buy. The charts do not show selling or covering signals.

This page shows the top ranked ETF Growth Database. It shows performance over the last 12, 9, 6, 3, and 1 months through the previous month's end. V is Volatility. NAV is price. CS is Comet Strength (not shown). C is Comet, which is an ETF's risk-adjusted performance; the higher the better (not shown). This gives us the Rank column (shown).

Generally speaking, we want to own the top-ranked ETFs with 5 and 4 comets. (Comets, not stars, because unlike stars that are fixed, comets come into and out of prominence. We want our thinking, our metaphor aligning with reality.

matic tax increases and spending cuts, unless a compromise is reached, will knock the domestic economy into a recession in the first and second quarter of 2013.

Even if they reach a compromise, the larger issue of debt as a percentage of GDP will loom. It will be the same with entitlement programs' obligations. Call me a cynic, but I don't see them solving the problem in four weeks with a couple of holidays thrown in during that time.

So, I suspect some backing and filling is to be expected, but the fundamentals haven't improved as regards deficits.

Please see the specific portfolio pages for changes.

Just to clarify a couple of terms that I use regularly.

Short-term is days to weeks.

Intermediate-term is weeks to months.

Long-term is months to years.

Cyclical is 1-5 years.

Secular is 5 years to decades.

Bull market is a series of higher highs and higher lows.

Bear market is a series of lower lows and lower highs.

Neutral market is sideways without a discernible pattern.

Oddly, bull and bear markets may occur simultaneously, but only over different time periods. For example, we may be in a secular bear market, but there are cyclical bull and bear markets within that.

Closing stops are "mental". I look at the position at quarter to the close. If it is trading below the stop (or above if short), then I act with the assumption the security will trigger that closing stop on that day. I sell (or cover) at the close that day.

New portfolio stops are being implemented. These are internal and will be emailed if triggered.

11/19 No changes.

11/12 Portfolio stops (in addition to specific ETF stops) are being implemented. These will be emailed for action the next day, if triggered.

11/5 ETF rankings by C (comet) through 10/31/12 are shown. ETF LEGEND is new on page 3.

10/30 No changes.

10/22 No changes.

10/15 The ETF comet (C—risk adjusted, relative strength) rankings through 9/30/12 are shown.

Descriptions & Disclosures

PORFOLIO DESCRIPTIONS (pages 2 and 6)

Our guiding goal is to provide the most return with the least risk consistently over time through bull and bear markets.

Income Portfolio, page2: Uses a proprietary selection methodology on all of the monitored bond-oriented ETFs to pick the top ETFs. I then use a proprietary timing model to decide whether to buy, sell, hold, or avoid.

Growth Portfolio, page 6: New selecting and timing model is nearing completion.

Both portfolios were started on 1/1/10 with $100,000.

Portfolio changes will usually be made at the close on Monday, unless otherwise noted in any emailed hotline update or triggered stop orders. Issues are normally posted on Mondays by 1:35pm cst (Tuesday if Monday is a holiday).

Portfolios are updated through the Friday close the week before.

Dividends are reinvested in additional shares. Commissions of $10/trade and short-term redemption charges, if any, are applied. Interest is zero for the money market (cash) position.

Wilshire 5000 TR (total return) includes dividend reinvestment. This is a broad based index of domestic stocks.
